SC 100 Series

Activate your potential

The SC 100 headsets make a great impression. From their contemporary sleek styling to great sound for calls and multimedia, they excel in all areas: at your workstation, on the move around the office or on your commute to work, there is a variant tailored to your needs. With discreet boom arm design, adjustable fit and a choice between acoustic foam or soft leatherette ear pads, the SC 100 headsets are built for flexibility and comfort. Add the productivity benefits of Sennheiser Voice Clarity, a noise-cancelling microphone for optimized speech and Sennheiser HD stereo* sound, and you have a convenient single solution for all your audio needs. Designed with today's work/life balance in mind, the SC 100 Series makes busy days more effective and listening to music while you work more enjoyable – all in one headset.
